This ingenious dark comedy blends gasp-inducing thrills with giggles. An aging down-and-out playwright gets a murder mystery script from his student and concocts a deadly plot of his own, with twists and turns that hold audiences spellbound till the last moment.

Still Need:

Lighting Design - Maybe YOU can help create mood and suspense through a cool lighting plot
Lead Carpenter - Maybe YOU can help build the unit set that is Sidney's study, including a fantastic wall of weapons!
Light Board - Maybe YOU can be one of the first to power up the brand new COMPUTERIZED lighting system
House Manager, Box Office, or other Front-of-House - Maybe YOU can help provide our audience with an excellent experience with Stage 62!

You — yes, YOU — can volunteer to fill vacant production positions by contacting Andy Folmer at andy.folmer@comcast.net or calling 412-915-4518. No prior experience is necessary; we're more than happy to help you along as you perhaps try something new!

ALSO – if you have any prop weapons – swords, bows, crossbows, knives, guns, handcuffs, shields, maces, clubs, etc. - and would be willing to loan them to us for this production, please contact Andy.

Congratulations

To the cast and crew of Sleeping Beauty for a great show. Congratulations also to the Tea Party committee for organizing a successful event.

City of Angels

If you are interested in a tech or production position for "City of Angles," contact Rob James or Patrick Palamara, co-producers.

*"The afternoon is bright,
 with spring in the air,
 a mild March afternoon,
 with the breath of April stirring,
 I am alone in the quiet patio
 looking for some old untried illusion - some shadow on the whiteness of the wall
 some memory asleep
 on the stone rim of the fountain,
 perhaps in the air
 the light swish of some trailing gown."*
